PASSING THOUGHTS --We likened the removal of the 42-year-old "Campbell Grammar School" sign and replacing it with "West Valley Junior College" to the changing of the letters on a theater marque advertising the next show.

However, there is a difference.

"Campbell Grammar School" had a 42-year run.

And the JC will probably have five years or six at the same stand.

No motion picture has had that long a run. Even counting the reruns on television.

THIS OVERLAPPING of boundaries in our area makes for much confusion. But there is little that can be done about it.

One just has to live with it.

Schools, cities, and postal districts with their varied lines make a complex maze of any map.

We were criticized for not running the entire list of the graduates of Del Mar High School. We published the Campbell High class (which took a half page). Some of our subscribers thought we should have done the same for Del Mar.

We candidly admit that we do have readers in the Del Mar area and we try to give a general coverage for that school's activities. But we just didn't have the space to run all the graduates.

We also have subscribers in the Camden High area. And some in Blackford. But few in Leigh.

When the new school, Westmont, opens next fall we plan to cover it almost as much as Campbell, for that school is very definitely almost in our area.

But even Westmont is within the city limits of San Jose.

Campbell High is the only one of the six high schools of the Campbell Union High School District that is within the city limits of Campbell.

The elementary district of Campbell isn't quite so bad, although it extends into seven different governmental subdivisions. But almost half of the 18 schools of the elementary district are actually in Campbell. To top it off, one of the Moreland schools lies within the city limits of Campbell.

But so it goes. And the city limits of various cities are even more confusing, if possible.

IT'S POSSIBLE, for example, to live within the Campbell city limits and have a San Jose mailing address.

Bob Stephens, Campbell's city manager, learned that the hard way.

When the Stephens were house-hunting just after he was appointed to the Campbell post, they naturally and very

C. of C. may oppose new JC study

Campbell Chamber of Commerce directors at their meeting this afternoon may request that the County Committee on School District Organization take no action on the requested study to determine whether the West Valley Junior College should exist. The main basis for the opposition to the new study is that it would be a duplication of one made previously.

In a petition signed by 500 residents in the area, the committee had been requested to make a comprehensive study of the need for the new junior college or establish a plan to consolidate it with adjoining districts (Foothill and San Jose City College).

A hearing on the request has been set for Thursday, July 23, at Campbell High School.

The C. of C. directors had been asked to oppose any further study by city and school officials because it was felt: (1) that it would only be a duplication of previous studies that have been made: (2) that it would show a lack of confidence in the voters who formed the district: (3) that the district should be given a fair chance to become established and (4) that a study at this time would serve as a deterrent to faculty and students morale.

Payroll shows it

In the 12 years since the City of Campbell has been incorporated, the city has become "big business." And it has the payroll to prove it.

It takes 80 full-time employees to operate the City of Campbell with annual salaries ranging from a low of $4,590 (office clerk) to a high of $14,400 (city manager).

Positions to be filled soon on the city staff include two civil engineering assistants (annual total for the two $14,488): engineering aide ($5,647): two police officers (annual total for the two $11,924), a planning director (salary to be decided), and a building inspector (salary not specified).

By resolution at the last council meeting, the City Council adopted a classification of positions establishing salaries based on the recommendation of the city manager.

RESOLUTION

The resolution also specified vacations and listed the holidays for the employees.

The nine-page resolution also listed the name, position and salary of all the present city employees. It also specified the salary steps (based on length of service) that each employee is in.

The second highest paycheck at the city hall, (next to the City Manager Bob Stephens' $14,400), goes to Myron Hawk, public works director, who draws $13,212 annually.

Police Chief John Morgan and Fire Chief George Maxwell each get the same pay, $11,688 annually. W. L. (Bud) Morser, building department, draws $11,136 and City Clerk Dorothy Trevethan receives $9,132.

Salaries of other key city personnel include $10,608 to Bill Wren, assistant city engineer: Police Lt. Carl Arnold, $9,396: Fire Marshal Gene Borden, $9,137: Ed Finlay, engineering assistant, $9,396: LeRoy Black, superintendent of public works, $8,292: Leonard Pritchard, building inspector, $8,760.

Police officer salaries range from $6,762 to $7,605 based on service. Police Sergeants Don Burr and Ron Eddleman receive $8,724; Sergeants John Butler and Paul Schommer, $8,654; Sergeant Dean Godbehere, $8,374: and Sergeant Larry Kelly, $8,238.

Fire captains' salaries range from $8,724 (William Morgan) down to $8,172 (Robert Terwilliger). Other captains get, Charles Scanlon, $8,654: Jerry Gomes, $8,584: John Butterfield, $8,238.

Robert Brydon heads Moreland

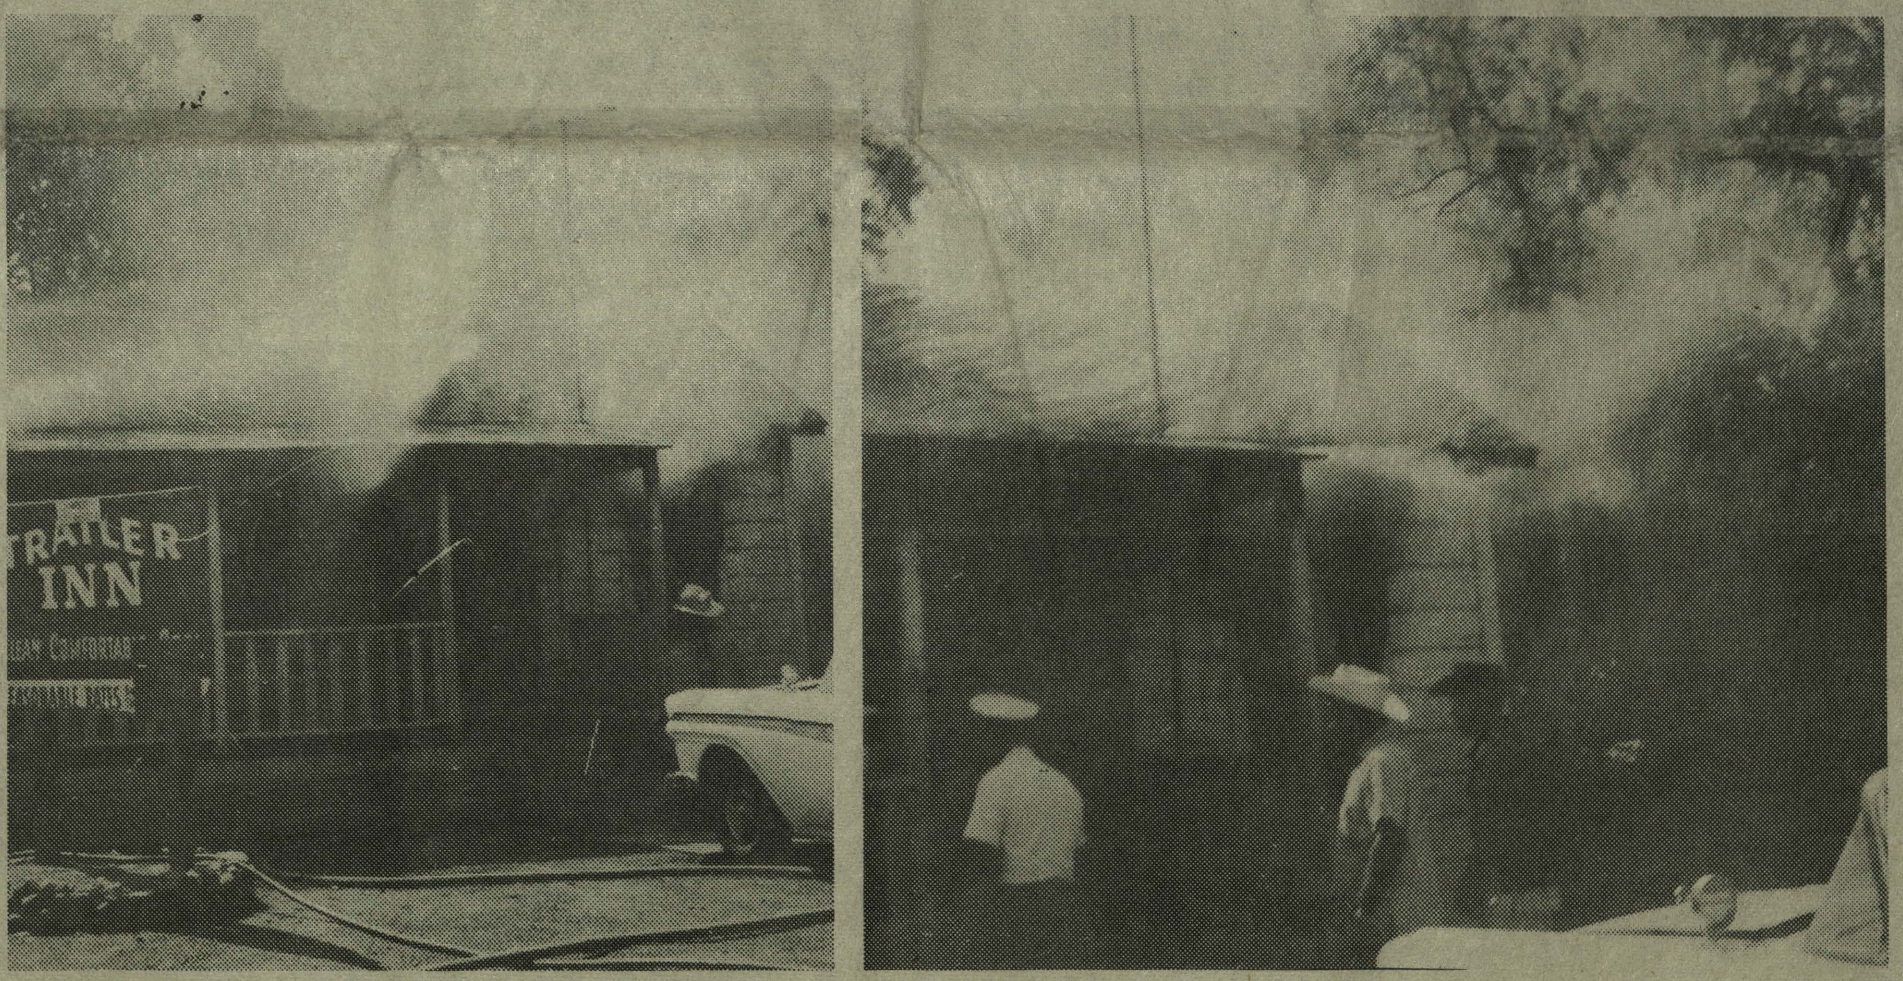
ROBERT BRYDON

Moreland School District Board of Trustees elected Robert Brydon to serve as president for the 1964-65 school year. Other officers elected were Mrs. Doris von Herrmann to serve as Clerk of the Board, Fred Noe, official representative to the County Trustees Association and Dr. Theo J. Norby, secretary to the Board.

Board members expressed regret at the loss of Fred M. Peterson, who resigned earlier this month. They indicated that they had applications for board membership from a number of citizens. This selection will be made soon.

The Board also voted to continue to meet on the second and fourth Tuesday of each month except in August, September, and December. After the close of the meeting, Mrs. Josephine Morgan, Secretary to Dr. Norby, presented Eugene Riordan with a birthday cake to make a festive climax to the meeting.

House burns in substandard area--- this one wasn't planned



THIS ONE WASN'T SCHEDULED--A number of houses, condemned by the city, in the substandard Railway-Dillon-Gilman area have been burned as part of the fire department training program. But on Tuesday morning, the above pictured structure at 190 Dillon, was partially destroyed by flames that were unscheduled. The building is owned by Thomas C. O'Neal of Capitola, Calif. The apartment house, called Trailer Inn, was occupied by three families. The unit occupied by Albert R. Boyles was the most severely damaged by the fire. It is reported that the fire originated in the living room furniture, possibly from a cigarette.

Let us spray---

Tree problems, of various shades, concern city

Trees that are situated within three feet of the public right of way in parkways may be sprayed by the city's park division, during tree-spraying time, according to a recent edict of the City Council.

But owners of the property on which the trees are located must sign a written permit before any spraying is done.

The basis for extending the tree-spraying service in the three foot area is to prevent any infested parkway tree from spreading its disease or pests to adjacent subdivisions.

Spraying of parkway (and off-parkway) trees was called to the attention of the Council recently by Councilman Ed Rogers.

Rogers said that many trees in the Coventry Village tract appeared to be in a sorry condition. The trees in the subdivision had not been planted in the parkway, he noted. But he thought that they should be sprayed or they might die and thus detract from the entire subdivision. Rogers hastened to add that he had contracted for tree-spraying service for his own yard and his trees were in good condition.

The Council, however, was somewhat reticent to move onto private property without further investigation of the problem.

Subsequently LeRoy Black, superintendent of public works, examined the trees in the Coventry Village area. His conclusion was that the trees (Modesto Ash) had been attacked by anthrac fungus, for which there is no known spray, according to the University of California at Davis experts. They suggested that the trees be washed down with clear water. The aphis and leaf hoppers in the trees, however, could be controlled by spraying.

But even if spraying was not going to help the Coventry trees, the Council felt a policy should be established for tree spraying in general.

Before the Council took its action, City Manager Bob Stephens said that he had checked with the neighboring cities of Sunnyvale and Santa Clara as to the tree spraying situation. He found that the problem was not unique to Campbell, he said.

Both Sunnyvale and Santa Clara, Stephens informed the Council, also use the written permission approach before any spraying is done in borderline cases.

It was emphasized by all concerned that individual trees, which are planted by the property owner, are only the concern to the city, if they become a public nuisance or endanger health and safety.

In another tree action with the same root, City Attorney Joseph Bonacina ruled against the request of the Campbell Garden Club which had asked the Council to pass an ordinance that would require Planning Commission approval before any property owner could remove a tree more than 50-feet in height on his own property.

Bonacina said that he felt this would be an infringement on the private rights of people.

In still another tree situation of recent vintage, there was some discussion at the Council meeting about having trees planted in the Gilman-Dillon-Railway section of town. This would be a condition, if more stringent M-1-S restrictions for the area were established.

But whether the trees would be located in the sidewalk or on the property presented a problem. The parcels in the area are small and thus trees would take up valuable space. On the other hand, having a tree in the sidewalk would nullify the walkway. People would have to walk on the street to get by the tree.

Editorial

"Non-explosive" editorial

Last week we urged editorially that the City Council ban the sale and use of fireworks within the city limits. We suggested this would be a solution to the annual hassle that takes place over the issuance of permits to organizations and business firms.

We had hoped that our fireworks editorial might set off a few sky rockets or something. We had visions of perhaps being challenged to a duel with sparklers at 20 paces by those who strongly favored continuing with the sale and use of the noisemakers.

As a matter of fact we had sort of wistfully hoped that perhaps there might be a few on our side also who might agree with our thinking and make their opinions known to the City Council.

We also felt that unless action was started now while the issue is current, nothing would be done by the city administration until just before Independence Day next year.

Then the same old hassle would take place.

But our fireworks editorial was sort of a dud. There was no explosion either pro or con.

This was disappointing, although not totally unexpected.

We had thought that perhaps the fire chief or others who recognize the nuisance created by fireworks might have mentioned that they thought we were on the right track.

But nary a word.

While we agree that the local fireworks issue does in no way compare to outstanding news events of the day, such as the Republican convention or Viet Nam, the point we make is that there must be a problem in Campbell or each year the City Council would not have such a struggle over deciding what permits should be issued.

The City Council meets next Monday, July 13.

Our forlorn hope was, originally, that enough interest of the citizens could be aroused so that the Council could get an idea of how the people felt at that meeting while July 4, 1964, was still remembered.

Otherwise we have a hunch that the issue will be put on the shelf to be taken down next year for a repeat performance.

But from the interest shown (or lack of same) by the citizenry, the chances that the issue will erupt on Monday at the council meeting are pretty slim.

So, our fireworks editorial was a dud. It just didn't go off.

But dud or not, we still maintain that the sale and use of fireworks within the city limits should be prohibited.

It is a joint effort

Property owners in the so-called substandard Railway-Dillon-Gilman area of Campbell are to be congratulated for their actions in attempting to upgrade their section of town.

We think their efforts should be encouraged by the city and that the city should assist in every way possible to bring about the desired objective.

At a meeting of the property owners of the area, at which 85% of the parcels were represented, it was decided that M-1-S zoning, the same that exists at present, would be the most logical zoning for the area. They also asked that the M-1-S should be more restrictive to have better control of the development.

A number of property owners also agreed to offer their lots jointly at a set price because many of the parcels are quite small. This joint effort, they feel, would offer more of an inducement to prospective buyers.

The city has been studying the area with the hope of upgrading it. A building permit and zoning "freeze" was placed on it recently while the study was taking place.

The condemnation program by the city has continued in which many of the buildings have been ordered to be demolished or brought up to standard. About 11 houses have already been demolished under the city's order.

We have no fault to find with the condemnation program, provided it is done in a fair manner. But once it is started, there can be no turning back, for every property owner must be treated the same. Removing the substandard structures is probably the only way the section can be cleaned up.

What we are trying to say is that the city and property owners should work together to accomplish this "cleaning up". We do not mean that the city should subsidize the people. But neither should the city act impersonal nor cold about the situation.

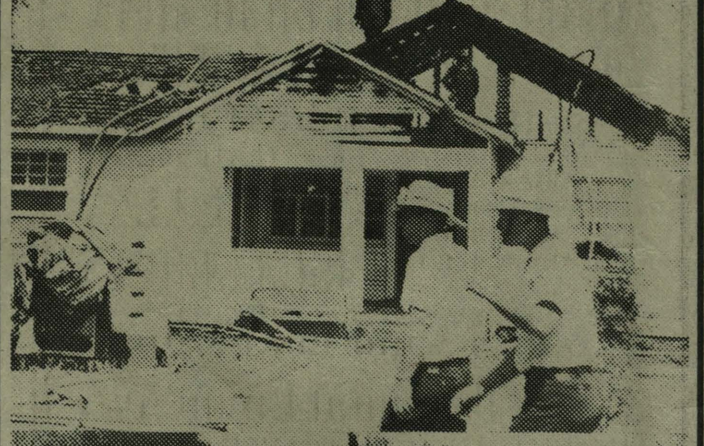
We hope that the "freeze" is lifted at the council meeting on July 13. We hope also that the city gives the people a pat on the back for their efforts.

If more restrictive conditions are desired for the M-1-S zoning than now exist, we suggest that in any case where a building permit comes before the city that the "S" approval be as strict as possible until more teeth are put into the present M-1-S zoning ordinance.

We think this can be done without delaying the lifting of the "freeze." Adoption of a more strict ordinance could take several more months.

We also think that it would be possible for the city to expedite matters by adopting emergency measures and thus cut the time down considerably.

We believe the property owners in the area deserve the utmost consideration and cooperation, for it is very definitely a joint effort.



ON THE SPOT--When a fire recently destroyed a duplex at 956 San Tomas Road, John Harris, 16-year old son of Mrs. Virginia Harris, local real estate agent, was on hand to "shoot" scenes. Photography is John's hobby and he develops his own pictures. He also will take pictures on assignment and deliver the finished pictures for a fee. The families of Floyd D. Hendricks and Richard Chapman were occupying the duplex at the time of the fire. Of coincidental interest, Mrs. Harris, the mother of the budding photographer, at one time used the same building as her real estate office.

carefully looked for places within the city limits.

They insisted that this be one of the conditions in their purchase of a residence.

They found the house they wanted. And it was in Campbell.

They did not bother to check about the postal district. They just assumed that their mailing address would be Campbell. So Bob had his cards printed that way.

He found out later that he has a San Jose address, although their house is within the city limits of Campbell.

That would be pretty frustrating for anyone.

But for Campbell's city manager, it is doubly so.

For the uninitiated, their home is in the Campbell "neck" on Monica Lane, north of Payne Ave. That street happens to be the dividing line between the Campbell and San Jose postal districts.

WINDING UP AND DISSOLUTION...That was the legal terminology used on an official legal document we signed recently.

The document had to do with the dissolving of the corporation which published The Temple City Times and of which we were a part for the last several years.

For some reason the title "Winding Up" gave us a start.

Ordinarily legal beagles are very precise and proper in their language as well as confusing.

For some reason we felt that "winding up" didn't quite come up to the usual legalese standard.

As a matter of fact, we had an entirely different concept of "winding up."

But anyway we signed the paper.

So we guess that winds it up.

Mexican history will be topic for Gem meeting

The Campbell Gem and Mineral Guild will present an unusual program at their next meeting, Tuesday, July 14. Pierre Allinio of Oakland will address the group and show color slides on the 19th Parallel of Mexico, between the cities of Manzanillo and Mandingo. His hobby is discovering ancient artifacts, rare temple ruins and hieroglyphics that even the Mexican government did not know existed.

The program will be held at 8 o'clock in the We and Our Neighbors Building, corner of Union St. and Los Gatos-Almaden Road

Junior college to move offices

Administrative offices of West Valley Junior College will move from the Moreland School District headquarters to the WVJC temporary campus, 51 E. Campbell Ave., Campbell, during the week of July 20, President Wallace W. Hall has announced.

The offices will be located in the campus main building and in relocatable buildings to be erected in the campus courtyard. Remodeling work is under way in the existing buildings, with administrative office areas to be completed first.

The College's business office, which has already moved from the Moreland headquarters to 328 E. Campbell Ave., about two blocks east of the Campbell campus, will also move into the campus courtyard buildings about July 20.

LAYMAN'S CRUSADE

Rev. Charles Robertson, pastor of the Cambrian Park Baptist Church, 15092 Camden Ave., will direct the Layman's Crusade to be held in the month of July. Visiting Baptist men will be in the churches in the area beginning with a get-acquainted dinner at Calvary Baptist in Redwood City on July 14. This movement of Baptist men to the West Coast is probably the greatest among Southern Baptist men to move into the area and assist the Churches in winning and developing new members.

Campbell graduates exchange vows at candlelight ceremony

Two 1963 Campbell High School graduates, Miss Dixie Lee Codner and Charles Allen Davis, exchanged marriage vows recently at a candlelight ceremony at the Zion Lutheran Church. The bride is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Steve Codner, 845 Connie Drive. Davis is the son of Mr. and Mrs. Harry Dunham of Campbell.

The attractive brunette bride chose a formal gown of white nylon and lace for her wedding day. Her veil was shoulder length and she carried a bouquet of white carnations centered with a white orchid. Diane Strickler of Hayward was the maid of honor and Sandra Codner, sister of the bride, was the bridesmaid. They were attired in pale blue floor length gowns and their bouquets were white carnations tied with blue streamers. Little Pat Haskell was the flower girl and Tommy Hofstad was the ring bearer. Best man was Frank Lanaine and ushers were Gary Wilson, Craig Haskell and John Hofstad.

A reception for 150 friends and relatives was held following the nuptials. The young couple are making their first home in Los Gatos.

Colt League season near end; barbecue on July 11

With only three games remaining on their schedules, the West Valley Colt League ball clubs are nearing the end of their summer play. Blackford remains in top position, with Leigh a close second and Camden in third place.

This has been a really successful season, both for the ball players and their most ardent fans, the parents.

The parents and boys are looking forward to the league's one big money-making project, the Colt League Barbecue on Saturday, July 11, at the Red Barn, on Hillsdale and Monterey highways. A barbecue steak dinner will be served from 6:30-9:00 p.m., with a three piece professional combo providing music for entertainment and dancing from 9 to midnight. A most enjoyable evening of dining and dancing is being offered. The public is cordially invited to attend this function. Anyone wishing tickets may obtain them by phoning the Colt League President, George Beardsley, at AN9-4449. A great time is promised to all.

The League will officially close its season on July 16 when the ball players are given their recognition dinner at the Los Gatos Swim and Racquet Club; use of the club facilities is being donated by Pete Denevi, club owner and president. At this affair, trophies will be awarded to the players of the championship team. The All-Star team will be announced during the evening, and All-Star practice will begin immediately.

San Jose State gets new prexy

Dr. Robert D. Clark, 54, first dean of the faculties at the University of Oregon at Eugene, has been named president of San Jose State College by the Trustees of the California State Colleges.

Chancellor Glenn S. Dumke, of the State College system, who announced the appointment, stated that completion of the selection procedure, in which faculty members of the college participated, will require a formal resolution by the Board of Trustees at their meeting July 29 and 30.

Dr. Clark, a native of Nebraska, will assume his new post this fall as the 18th president of century-old San Jose State, succeeding Dr. John T. Wahlquist, retiring president of the college, who will remain on campus as president emeritus and professor of education.

At the time of his appointment to the presidency, Dr. Clark had been a faculty member at the University of Oregon for more than two decades, achieving national recognition as a professor of speech and chairman of the university's speech department.

OUR TOWN

By Grace Hebard

GOING... going... gone... The sites for West Valley Junior College are becoming more and more scarce as one of the most desirable was sold recently to the Schulte-Blackwell Development Company for subdivisions...The property is the 385 acres of vineyards of the Los Gatos Novitiate along Redmond and Coleman Roads and along the scenic Guadalupe Mines Road.

Bob Phillips, 3911 Via Montalvo, is in Campbell Community Hospital recuperating from a fall. Phillips, who is Store Superintendent for Breuner's, has alot of company. Other local patients have included Bob Stephens, the city manager, and Robert Brydon, school board member.

It seems that Campbell's Senior Citizens have to go out of town for recreation. We do not have a gathering place for them to hold their card games, pot luck suppers, musicals and other entertainment.

Patricia Ann Miller of Campbell was elected a Senator at the 21st session of California Girls' State held at the Davis Campus of the University of California. Girls' State is sponsored by the American Legion Auxiliary and is citizenship training for youth in government.

The William Hands family of Branbury Drive have returned from a vacation to Louisville, Kentucky, which is their former home.

The West Valley Symphony Orchestra is practicing for another concert. This one will be held in conjunction with the Blossom Valley Chorus. Time and place to be announced later.

The Richard Straws of Palo Santo Drive left as soon as school was out for a month's vacation to Indiana. They also expect to visit New York for a few days...

Dick Mayne, Deputy County Coroner and former Campbell Councilman, is catching up on his reading since his recent heart attack. He will be "off the job" for nearly a year, under doctor's orders to take it easy...

Campbell's loss... Los Gatos' gain... The Bud Stonehockers of Villarita Drive moved into their new home on Rinconada Drive in Los Gatos this week...

SOCIAL SECURITY

Questions and Answers

U.S. DEPARTMENT OF HEALTH, EDUCATION, AND WELFARE
SOCIAL SECURITY ADMINISTRATION

By Gladstone A. Boquist
Field Representative

Q.-Should a wage earner or a self-employed person over 65 and still working apply for social security benefits?

A.-Any worker over 65 should at least visit his local Social Security Office to get information that will help him decide when he should apply for benefits. Many people over 65 can receive some benefits, even though they are still working.

Q.-I will probably be moving soon. How do I let Social Security know my new address?

A.-Write directly to the Social Security Payment Center that is responsible for sending your checks. Be sure to include your name, claim number and new address. Your local Social Security Office can provide you with a handy pre-addressed postcard for this purpose.

Q.-I am 66 years old and have never filed for social security payments because I am still running my farm. A neighbor told me that because my earnings are rather small ($1500 to $1600 a year), I might qualify for social security payments. Is this true?

A.-Yes, it is. Based on your estimates, you could draw most of your social security checks each year and still run your farm. Check with your Social Security Office.

Q.-As a farmer, I usually need some help during the summer months and, when I do, I get one of my neighbor's boys to help me. I pay him in cash and it may amount to about $300 for the summer's work. Do I have to keep a record of this for social security purposes?

A.-Yes, you do. You should keep a record of his name, address, social security number, and the amount of cash wages paid. When you pay more than $150 in cash wages to a farm employee during the calendar year, you must file a report at the end of the year with the Internal Revenue Service and pay the social security taxes.

Salvage shop offers chairs

Disabled War Veterans Salvage Shop, 935 Washington St., Santa Clara, is offering scores of chairs, dating back to the 1850's, according to Irving R. Cabral, store manager.

Most of the chairs come from early Santa Clara homes, covering many styles. The chairs can be purchased reasonably and the purchaser can have the fun of refinishing them. All proceeds from the sale of the chairs goes to aid disabled veterans employed in the store, which is open Monday through Saturday from 8 a.m. to 6 p.m.

FOR THE BRIDE-- This beautiful display of glassware and table settings for the bride was shown at Breuner's Wayside Store recently in conjunction with their "Thank You" party for 100 prospective brides registered at the store. The event was so successful it was decided to hold these parties annually. The brides-to-be were given decorating information, and modern table appointments were displayed. Refreshments were served to a background of organ music.

Breuner's stages party for brides-to-be

Breuner's Wayside Store in Campbell recently conducted a "thank you party" for 100 prospective brides who had registered with the store.

Because of the success of the event, which was the first staged by Breuner's, it will become an annual affair.

The management of the store also extended thanks to the manufacturers that had assisted in making the event possible. Special mention was made of Navlet's Flowers, Blums--Towne & Country Village, Hale's Department Store and Wallace Silver Co.

R. E. Schreck, store manager, welcomed the brides-to-be after the guests were greeted by hostesses comprised of sales personnel from the small wares' staff. Organ music was provided by Lionel Nightingale to add atmosphere for the occasion.

E. E. Hamstreet, manager of the decorating studio, explained the merits of the decorating services as provided by Breuner's. Mrs. Freda McDonough, of the China and glassware department, gave an informative talk on modern table appointments.

Don Dick, manager of this department, conducted the drawing of the bride's Treasure Chest and other prizes. Miss Diane Hayes, of 1249 Hanchett Ave., San Jose, was the winner of the chest, filled with merchandise valued at more than $525.

Another winner was Miss Valerie Tinti, 545 S. 7th St., San Jose, who received a $25 gift Bruener certificate. Both prize winners plan to be married on the same day, August 15.

Another feature of the program was the display of bridal tables where place settings of china, silverware and crystal in their individual choices were exhibited.

Refreshments were served to conclude the evening.

PG&E reveals plan for new street lights

Pacific Gas and Electric Company has placed in effect rate reductions which will enable communities such as Campbell with company-owned street lighting systems to obtain greatly improved lighting at little or no increase in cost.

The company has obtained approval from the California Public Utilities Commission to lower the monthly rates for all sizes of mercury vapor street lamps - from 175-watt, 7,500-lumen size through 1,000-watt, 57,000-lumen size.

Its modernization proposals will apply to more than 200 communities in 46 Northern and Central California counties in which it owns and maintains street lighting systems. Most of the lights in these systems now are incandescent lamps.

PG&E will work with representatives of cities, counties and lighting districts to develop specific programs for the conversion of existing lights. A careful analysis will be made to determine how individual areas can benefit most from conversion.

The mercury vapor reductions are part of the gas and electric rate cuts through which the company is passing on to customers the full savings effected by reductions in its federal income taxes. The Public Utilities Commission approved the over-all rate plan which PG&E submitted on June 1, and the various changes will bring reductions totaling $9,850,000 a year starting today.

R. W. Joyce, PG&E vice president-commercial operations, said the improved lights will increase safety for pedestrian and vehicular traffic at night and serve as a deterrent to crime.

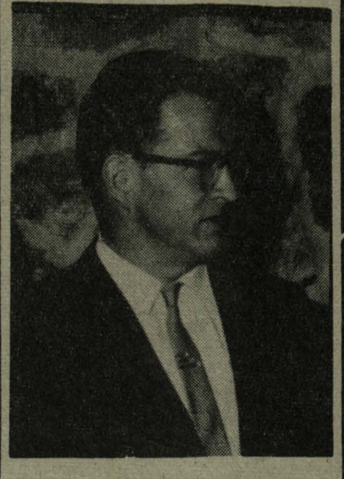
Bruce F. Allen again heads college board

Bruce F. Allen, Los Gatos, former Assemblyman, was re-elected chairman of the West Valley Junior College board of trustees in the board's annual organization session.



BRUCE F. ALLEN

Robert F. Brydon, Campbell rancher and president of the Moreland Elementary School district, was re-elected Vice-chairman, and Dr. Edwin C. Brown, of Los Gatos, retired school administrator, was renamed clerk of the board.

Dr. Wallace W. Hall, district superintendent and College president will again serve as secretary to the board of trustees.

Donald E. Lindstrom, of Santa Clara, assistant principal of Mt. Pleasant Elementary School, will again serve as trustee representative to the County School Boards meeting to elect members of the County Committee on School District Organization.

The WVJC trustees voted to continue holding their regular meetings at 7:30 p.m. on the first and third Thursdays of each month, at 4710 Campbell Ave.

They also set Friday, July 10, 7:30 p.m., for a personnel session in which to interview eight applicants for appointment to the trustee post vacated July 1 by Albert A. Vatuone, who resigned because of increasing business and personal matters.

Local hospital plans expansion

Plans are underway at Campbell Community Hospital to expand. The first step will be an enlarged emergency room, in quarters presently occupied by the storage room. Bids for the job are about to be let and work is expected to start at the end of the month.

Plans for the larger Emergency Room call for seven treatment cubicles, a nurses station, and a combination conference room and doctor's examining room and a whirl pool bath.

Dr. Robert Wade, president of the board, said "The expanding emergency room should be a real asset to the community. This is, after all, what we are trying to accomplish - a service to the community." The hospital has recently been accepted as an institutional member of the American Hospital Association.

Douglas Station burglarized

The Douglas Service Station, located at 1605 Winchester Blvd. was burglarized of $165 in cash and checks in the early morning hours of July 4, according to a report from the Campbell Police Department.

The intruder, who apparently knew his way around the station, gained entry by forcing the bars of the sliding gate to the lube room. A tire iron was used to pry open the bottom section of a tool box where the money was stored. In addition to the money and checks, the thief also took four books of Douglas stamps. An investigation is being made by the Campbell Police.
